Jain Hawala Case

679. SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the designated court has discharged all accused in the Jain Hawala case;

(b) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the opinion of the Central Vigilance Commissioner Mr. N. Vittal that the case can be reopened by CBI to question the Dubai based Kingpin Amir Bhai; and

(c) if so, the details thereof and Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) designated court had framed charges against some of the accused persons but some were discharged by the Delhi High Court.

This was agitated before the Supreme Court of India. The Supreme Court of India, in its judgement dated 2.3.1998, held that even though the entries recorded in one of the diaries seized by the CBI from the Jains were admissible u/s 34 of the Indian Evidence Act, yet those were not sufficient to charged the alleged recipients unless there was independent evidence to prove the receipt of the said amounts by them. The Court of Special judge, Delhi High Court and Supreme Court of India, while examining the relevant charge-sheets filed in the said Hawala Case, during the course of trial/revision/appeal, did not find any such independent evidence to prove receipt to the amounts recorded in the diary against the names of the alleged recipients and, therefore, discharged all the accused persons in the said case.

(b) Yes, sir.

(c) Shri Amir Bhai has been interrogated in detail but he has not disclosed any new material on the basis of which the so-called Hawala Case could be re-opened by the CBI at this stage.
